Navratri is the Rasa and Garba (folk dance) dances, which are performed at all levels of society by men and women. Girls and women dress in colorful ghagra-cholis with shining beads and tiny mirrors. Men dressed in Kafni-Pyjamas (Rajasthani costumes). The dancers form a circle around it, singing traditional songs, Garba and Dandiya-Raas are played with wooden sticks (dandiya) with great enthusiasm. The mood of Navratri is very colorful & unique and is a festival of pure happiness and one of the most auspicious (shubh) occasions.
